

JESUS' PARENTS TAKE HIM TO THE TEMPLE

(Jerusalem) — When Jesus was still a baby, Joseph and Mary took him to the big temple in Jerusalem to promise God the child would belong to him. All faithful Jewish parents did the same thing when their new children were still babies.

While they were in the temple with Jesus, Joseph and Mary discovered that some people who were already there knew that Jesus was God's special person. One of these people was an old man named Simeon. Simeon took the baby Jesus in his arms and said to Mary and Joseph, "I am so happy I finally got to see God's special child that now I can die in peace."

Another person who was waiting in the temple was a woman named Anna. When she saw the baby Jesus, she gave thanks to God.
