

JESUS GETS TWO MORE FOLLOWERS

(Near the Jordan River) — When Jesus was ready to go back to his home country of Galilee, he asked two brothers, Andrew and Peter, to become his followers. They were also from Galilee. Before they left the Jordan River, where John the Baptizer had washed Jesus, two more young men met Jesus. One of them was named Philip. He was from the same home town where Andrew and Peter lived.

Jesus asked Philip to become one of his followers. Philip was ready to follow Jesus, but he wanted to ask his friend to come and follow Jesus too. He went and asked Nathanael to come along with them. Nathanael didn't know if he should trust Jesus or not. He knew that Jesus came from Nazareth, and Nazareth was just a little farm town. Philip said, "Jesus is the Messiah!"
